Choose your apprentice

- You are an entrepreneur.
- You need to 'hire' an engineer to set up life on the moon!
- It's a big, challenging job that will make history.
- It needs the right apprentice - someone with resilience, determination, engineering expertise and great people skills!

Who will you 'fire' and 'hire'?

- Line up the cards in front of you - that is your apprentice line up.
- Each time I reveal a layer of information about each apprentice, you need to 'fire' one person by removing them from your line up.

The apprentices...

Fire one now so you have six remaining

Who was your choice?

- What choice did you make?
- Are you pleased with your hired apprentice?
- Would you have made a different decision if you had the qualifications information first?
- What is wrong with judging people with such little information?
- What do you think influenced your decisions?
- Do you think people often judge people like this in our everyday life?
- What could be the consequences of pre-judging people?
